

Key industry leaders will present an engaging workshop to share their knowledge and experiences of women in agriculture.

Get involved and discuss:

- Young and female – how to build credibility
- Engaging women in on-farm decision making
- What does climate change mean for agriculture?

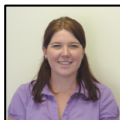

Chair-Lyn Sykes

Chair and speaker- The character effect; insights into success

Lauren Costin

How I emerged from the chaos of university into a career in agriculture

Libby Lawson

NRM graduate to consultant; overcoming the challenges

Lisa McQueen

“But, you’re a girl?...” Returning to work on the family farm

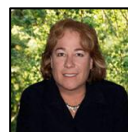

Fiona Best

Growing your profile; opportunities in the not-for-profit sector

John Squires

Most bosses in agriculture are males and most graduates females- Is this an issue?

Linda Eldredge

The five truths of the practising consultant....how to best connect with the partners of the business and give unique value to your clients.

Jane Kellock

Do consultants help?

Di Davidson

Women in consulting; a wealth of opportunity; incorporating climate change in the role of a viticulture consultant.

The day will be fully catered, with registrations from 8:00 am and hot breakfast served at 8:30am. Finish at 5pm.

Monday, 22 March 2010

The Shores Room

The Shores Function Complex, Military Road, West Beach

More information and speaker bio's available on-line

Students FREE non-students $75 bookings are limited

Register NOW: 08 83448816 or on-line www.productivenutrition.com.au

This project is supported by funding from the Australian Government Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry under its Australia's Farming Future initiative.